ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

After a year of unprecedented success, St. Mary's Academy held its last school session for 1909-1910 today, when certificates of promotion were conferred upon all whose daily work throughout the ten school months and whose standing in the monthly examinations had secured for them the required average for advancement. At the opening of the session gold medals and prizes were promised to all who would successfully compete for them and today the worthy contestants were announced and the drawings were held. Tomorrow at 3:30 the forty-second annual commencement exercises will be held in Lannon's Opera House when a programme of exceptional merit will be presented and graduating gold medals, diplomas and prizes will be conferred. Admission will be by ticket, except for the friends of the graduates and St. Mary's Alumnae for whom alone seats will be reserved.

Certificates of promotion were awarded to C. Brill, M. Murphy, K. Waller, M. Gains, D. Fisher, K. Wechler, I. Hoffman, A. Hamill, C. Tyler, K. Kelly, E. Roland, E. Perry, E. Thomas, A. Middleton, G. ## POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William McGuire and William Fowler, charged with being drunk and disorderly, were fined $5 each.

William Eggleston, colored, charged with stealing clothing from J. Bernheimer & Co., was sent on the grand jury.

Joseph Reynolds, charged with interfering with officers in the discharge of their duties, was fined $5.

Lee Willis, colored, charged with the larceny of a cushion from the Southern Railway Company, was fined $5.

John Sweeney, a Californian, charged with being drunk in the streets, was fined $5.

Joshua Williams and Lewis Proctor, both colored, charged with assaulting Wesley Redd, colored, were fined $5 each.

William Fountain, colored, charged with assaulting Ellen Barbour, was fined $5.

George Carter, colored, charged with assaulting Aba Brown, also colored, was fined $5.

A white man, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and assaulting his wife, had his case continued until Wednesday.

A white woman, charged with buying a watch and failing to report the purchase to the police station, was fined $10.

ELECTION.

An election for members of the Board of Aldermen, one from each ward and of members of the Common Council, two for each ward, will be held tomorrow. The polls will open at sunrise and close at sunset. But little interest is shown in the election as the democratic nominees have no opposition and the result is already known. Those elected tomorrow will be: Ward 1st, H. Taylor & Co. (Tailor & Dressmaker); Ward 2nd, Brocton Co-operative Co., Walk Over; Ward 3rd, Excelsior Shoe Co., and many others. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

TOPICS ASSIGNED.

Topics to be discussed at the twenty-fourth annual meeting of the State Firemen's Association in Alexandria, beginning August 24th, are announced by George G. Cunningham, secretary of the State Association, as follows:

Over Insurance—Should there not be a closer community of interest between local underwriters and fire department officials. Assigned—R. H. McLaughlin, chief fire department, Norfolk, Va.

The importance for cities and towns of our State to create an office as fire inspector of buildings co-operating with the chief of the fire departments. Would it not reduce financial losses by fire and danger to life and property. Assigned—W. R. Walker, chief fire department, Portsmouth, Va.

The importance of railroad and steamboat companies and local business places of our State adopting strict rules preventing the storage of coal, oil, benzene, kerosene, powder, etc., with other goods which often has caused large fires and loss of life to our brave firemen and others. Assigned—John H. Raffo, assistant chief fire department, Richmond, Va.

An efficient volunteer fire department and how to maintain it. Assigned—M. C. Smith, chief citizens' fire department, Pocomoke, Va.

The freedom of our State, when having saved human lives and property at the risk of losing their own life—how should firemen be best rewarded. Assigned—J. W. Waggoner, captain fire department, Roanoke, Va.

Fire drills in our public schools an important necessity. Should it not be a part of the instructions or laws of the school boards that the children may be trained to have presence of mind in case of fire or time of danger and the importance of having all doors doing both ways in buildings. Assigned—John H. Trimmer, president Relief H. & L. Co. No. 1, fire department, Alexandria, Va.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES.
Interesting children's day services were held in Bethany M. P. Church last night. The following was the programme: Chorus, "Hail Glad Day"; prayer, ending with chanting the Lord Prayer; chorus, "The Voice of Weeping"; solo and chorus, anniversary song, Miss Dudley; class song, "The Blossom Bells"; primary song, "Jesus Loves the Little Children"; class song, "Good News from the Prairies"; solo, "I will Praise the Lord"; Miss Mary DeVaughn; solo, "Come into thy Garden"; Miss Hattie Padgett; chorus, "Would you be a Soldier?"; solo, "Praise Him, Summer flowers"; Miss Elizabeth Hantmon; chorus, "O Zion haste, thy Mission Fullfilling"; duet, "Down in the Blossom Dell"; Hattie and Ervin Padgett; chorus, "Mission Hymn"; solo, "China's Millions"; Miss Anna Padgett; remarks and collection; closing chorus, "The Wide Wide World."

Children's day services were held in the Village Chapel, on Gibson street, yesterday afternoon. An interesting programme was well-rendered on the occasion.

The children's day services which were to have been held in the M. E. Church South yesterday morning were postponed until next Sunday on account of the weather.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Amanda Francis took place yesterday afternoon from the residence, 1115 Prince street. Rev. W. A. Rudisill, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, and Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. The pallbearers were Peter Astyrke, Walter Pierpoint, Charles Pierpoint, Charles Kane, H. L. Ramsey, and R. T. Lucas and the interment was in Union Cemetery.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Caroline Carlisle, who died in Washington Saturday, were brought to this city yesterday. The funeral took place from the chapel at W. Dennie & Son's undertaking establishment this afternoon.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.
William Eggleston, colored, stole a suit of clothes from the store of J. Bernheimer & Co., about a month ago, and made his escape. He returned Saturday night and attempted to run away with a pile containing eight suits. He was pursued and captured by officers Bell and Roland. Eggleston said he was from Lakeville, N. C. He was brought before the Police Court this morning and sent on to the grand jury.

CLOSING EXERCISES.
The closing exercises of St. Mary's Sunday school were held in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall yesterday morning. An address was delivered by Rev. H. J. Cutler, and gold medals for attendance were drawn by Joseph Bayless, Francis Nugent, Katherine Brill, and Hattie Meade.

YESTERDAY.
Rain fell throughout yesterday, which was a gloomy and dismal day. But few people were on the streets and the congregations in the several churches were small, many persons being kept at home by the inclemency of the weather. In several of the churches Children's Day was observed, but the rain greatly marred the celebrations.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. George H. LeHue, was the scene of an enjoyable occasion on Saturday, last which was the tenth birthday of Miss Ruth F. LeHue, their daughter. Many friends gathered to enjoy the evening with Miss Ruth. After the amusement of games and music, refreshments were served.

THE GAZETTE.
The Alexandria Gazette came out last week in an entire new dress, and has been enlarged from a seven-column to an eight-column quarto, and from a typographical standpoint shows a much improved appearance. In news service, however, the Gazette needs no improvement, for it is one of the brightest and newest dailies that comes to this office.—[Loudon Milliror.

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight.

"They come high." "The best are the cheapest." Our people want them and we say to the ladies you can see J. A. Marshall's Exclusive styles at 422 King street, J. A. Marshall & Bro.,

PERSONAL.

Miss Stella B. Cockrell, of Strawberry Hill, Fairfax county, and Miss Margaret V. Cockrell, of Washington D. C., left Saturday for Chicago.

Mrs. Lillie A. Helmer, of Redwood, Jefferson county, New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Chickister, at Rose Cottage, Fairfax county. This is their first meeting for twenty-seven years.

Clarence C. Leadbeater has gone to Lancaster, Pa., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Alexander.

Miss Florence Kinzer, of Lancaster, Pa., is the guest of Miss Mary Johnson, at her home on Prince street.

Mrs. Maurice Wilkins and Miss Annie C. Richards are at Atlantic City where they will remain during the next two weeks.

Mrs. Margaret Fleming, who has been visiting friends in this city, returned to her home in Staunton, on Thursday morning.

Mr. Manning Cluverius, of New Orleans, is visiting Mr. Edgar Warfield, Col. E. Lee, of "Ravensworth," in this city today.

Rev. Berryman Green, who has been quite sick in Richmond, is improving though he was not strong enough to return to his home, on Seminary Hill, on Saturday as he had expected to do.

Miss Helen Buchanan, who for the past few years has made her home with Mrs. H. M. Hockman in this city, died on Saturday last, the 11th instant at the home of her uncle at Ellersley, Md., where she had gone for her health.

Miss Sue M. Yates, who has been visiting Miss Blanch Stansbury, has returned to her home in Fredericksburg.

LUNA PARK.

Luna Park, with its many new features, is again open to the public for another season, and Alexandrians wishing innocent amusement can find it at this well-known resort every afternoon and evening in the week. The park this year is under new management, who have spent a great deal of money to put in new attractions, besides having a band concert by an organization of 15 pieces every evening, and also on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The amusements include "A Trip to Halley's Comet," something new and the first time seen at any park in the United States. Provision has been made for the entrance to the park from the north side of automobiles and carriages, while the lawn in front has been beautified with the planting of flowers.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Retail Merchants' Association will meet tomorrow night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

The continued rain has seriously interfered with street work and also with building and repairing.

The local board of civil service examiners will hold an examination in this city Wednesday to secure eligibles for clerk-carrier in the local postoffice.

The Corinthian Yacht Club, of Washington, will hold a speed boat race at Marshall Hall this evening. The boats of Messrs. Calmes, Moore and Emerson, of this city, will take part in the races.

The Epworth League of Trinity M. E. Church together with the Washington leagues will give a moonlight excursion on the steamer St. Johns tomorrow evening.

Announcement was made at St. Mary's Catholic Church yesterday morning that beginning next Sunday the second mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock instead of at 10:30 o'clock.

A civil service examination will be held on June 29 for teachers of vocal music at Haskell Institute, Kansas, and on July 27-28 for assistant chemist Department of Agriculture.

The names of the father and mother of the infant found in Iowa Circle, Washington, last week, have been ascertained by the police. The father of the child is said to be a Washingtonian and the mother lives in Falls Church.

Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the third annual young people's flower festival was held in the Second Presbyterian Church. The attendance was large notwithstanding the inclement weather.

In a quarrel over a sum of money between two negroes, George Hawkins and Joe Johnson, in front of the Arlington Hotel, at Indian Head, Md., a few days ago, Hawkins struck Johnson on the head with a bottle, crushing his skull and causing his death.

The wreckers have at last succeeded in raising the wreck Katabidil, sunk about three weeks ago below Indian Head, Md., by a shot which struck her below the water line. The shot hole has been patched up, and the ram will be brought to the Washington navy yard to be fitted with a new set of targets of a different type from those which were attacked in the last trial.

The Misses Rotchford and class of 1910 will hold their annual recital Friday evening, June 17, at the Opera House.

THE UNIVERSITY.

The commencement exercises of the closing session of the University of Virginia began yesterday with an organ recital at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon by Prof. W. H. Jones. The annual address before the Young Men's Christian Association was delivered at 8 o'clock yesterday evening by Rev. Theron H. Rice, D. D., of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va.

Eight graduates of the university will go into mission work.

An unnamed alumnus has given busts of Shakespeare and Newton to the University library.

The British government today accepting the resignation of Lord Kitchener as inspector general of the Mediterranean forces, Mr. Secretary Haldane announced in the House of Commons that Kitchener did not desire the post and that the government had reluctantly accepted the resignation.

NO RETROCESSION.

There will be no retrocession of Virginia territory to the District of Columbia according to the plan which has been urged during the present session of Congress at least.

This fact became assured today when a guarantee that there would be no retrocession of territory was given Senator Martin and Representative Carlin, of Virginia, by President Taft during a conference at the White House.

The two Virginia statesmen called upon the president to protest against the proposed retrocession, offering a long petition setting forth the unconstitutionality of such an act.

Mr. Taft after listening to their argument assured them that there would be no action on the subject during this session.

This puts a quietus on the movement during this session of Congress, to recede to the District that part of Alexandria county, which was included in its original formation.
